The Horrible Giant by J'Zai in 3A

The horrible giant wouldn't let the angry, upset children play in his garden. Some of them were really blue and angry. They didn't care about getting chased or prosecuted. They started painting another giant and laughing. They played in the giant's garden because they had nowhere to play. Some of the little brothers and sisters, were scared that they will get prosecuted. Their big brother or sister hugged them tight so they didn't feel scared.

"You don't need to be scared brother," the big brother stated.

The big sister hugged her little sister really tight. The sign made them even more worried.

"I am starting to get more scared," wailed the little sister.

When the giant arrived home, he looked through his window and saw the children doing some paintings on his wall. He became really angry with rage. He wanted to kill them because they didn't listen to the sign.

"Those children are going to pay!" shouted the giant as he shook his fists.

He stomped out of his house breaking everything. When he was outside, the children could hear the stomping.

"Is that a dinosaur?!" asked one of the children.

"No!" laughed one of the older children.

Reading Diaries

As we haven't been able to send reading diaries home all children in years 1-6 now have a Reading diary in the form of a google form on their Google Classroom in the Reading Diary Topic.

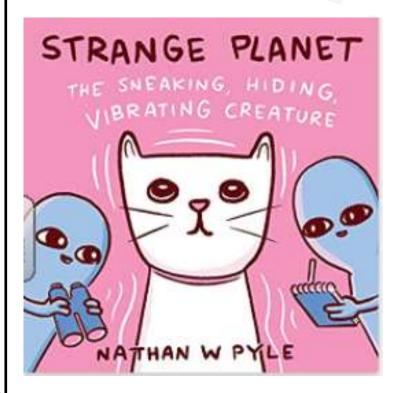

The same form can be filled in each time they read and submitted for the teacher to read.

Each time diary is filled in it will add a new entry to their online diary which is kept as a record for the teacher just like their reading diary booklet.

Join Strange Planet's lovable parent and child aliens as they embark on a quest to understand the vibrating creature (that's a cat to us humans) that is stalking around their house. As the aliens closely observe the creature, they discover all their differences and what they have in common. This paper-over-board picture book has all the literalminded charm of Nathan's previous books, and written with parents and kids in mind. It's perfect for playtime, bedtime, or anytime!

Year 3 have been looking at and making drawings of the Staffordshire Hoard. Children then made Polytile prints.

Poetry from 4W

Diversity

Difference is key

Individuality

Very much peculiarity

Even when you try not to show it

Racism, sexism isn't right

See you are beautiful no matter what

I believe that I am beautiful

To everyone I think you are too

You have to believe, that is why!

DEFORESTATION by Ahmed

Don't cut trees.

Everyone will maybe die.

Forests are key for animals to survive.

Or animals will start to die if you keep cutting trees.

Remember trees are important for us to live.

Every day our tree countdown goes down.

So don't cut trees or our lives are in danger.

To you and animals

And

Take care of forests

I will remember orangutans and tigers and I hope you do too and don't cut trees

Or there might be a consequence to face

Never forget deforestation was a thing

DIVERSITY by Ahmed

Diversity is a big thing
In every place
Valued to keep people nice
Everyone hates
Racism but loves
Society and education to work
Indoors and at school
To everyone make sure to stay educated
You will thank me later while staying educated

DIVERSITY by Dilraj

Diversity is Important and Valued.

Everybody likes

Rainbows.

So difference is Important

To

You!

4W have been learning about deforestation and have made this wonderful poster. They have also been making clay volcanoes in their art lessons.

Of course, we are always here for your children, and we will do anything which we can do to help them to learn, succeed and become fine citizens. We are also there for our families and the wider school community. If we can help in any way: with food bank support, support with uniforms and clothing or with any other aspect of life, then please get in touch.
